

From A Deep Dive into the Search for Delicious GATE Novel Unit (2nd-4th)

A POEM TO PONDER

The following poem provides some hints about the novel we are reading together. Read the poem and the extra notes. Then answer the question at the bottom of the page.

In my TPT Store

Far away was an imaginary place,
a land with creatures
not found in our world today;
time passed and a kingdom evolved,
and something quite small
started a war among the people, and
yes, an unusual search began.

This poem does not rhyme. Poems that don't rhyme are called FREE VERSE poems. You can read this kind of poem as if you are reading a sentence.

What phrases in the poem give hints about the story? Underline or highlight them.

What type of story do you think this is?

ANSWER

Far away was an imaginary place,
a land with creatures
not found in our world today;
time passed and a kingdom evolved,
and something quite small
started a war among the people, and
yes, an unusual search began.